

Paul Martinez

Professional Production and Hospitality Services

With more than 8 years of high-end event production experience encompassing corporate, private, political, and city events both nationally and overseas, Paul Martinez stands uniquely qualified in the world of event production and hospitality.

Production: The scope and range of Paul's work as a Producer and Project Manager brings with it a unique fluency in a variety of production elements. His production responsibilities have included, stage management & ASM, on-site staff training and managing, vendor review & selection, talent coordination & hospitality, security plan development & execution, tradeshow floor management, guest registration, speaking engagement production, human & vehicle flow/directional coordination, production schedule development, EMT/PD/Canine bomb sweep supervision, DMC integration, budgeting and reconciliation, volunteer recruitment and organization, and numerous site reviews and inspections.

Hospitality: Specialized in talent coordination and hospitality, Paul has personally handled engagement organization, rider fulfillment, and on-site hospitality for Elton John, Sting, Aerosmith, Sheryl Crow, Jay Leno, Dana Carvey, Lyle Lovett, The Counting Crows, Jose Feliciano, Berlin, SF Mayor Gavin Newsom, LA Mayor Antonio Villaraigossa, CA Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, numerous top level corporate executives, and various mid-level and local talent.

Paul's charismatic personality, remarkable work ethic, and sharp business acumen have proven invaluable in meeting critical production deadlines. His creative problem solving, efficient and thorough delivery under pressure, and high level of client interaction and relationship cultivation are keys to this success. He prides himself in constantly striving to create a driven, energetic, and innovative atmosphere that promotes huge personal and professional rewards.

Blending a true passion and energy with exceptional organization and drive, Paul's clients have continuously referred to him as "the perfect man for the job!".

Contact Paul for your next event!

